International Police Checks typically take 5 to 15 business days

International Police Checks typically take 5 to 15 business days, depending on the country being searched and how quickly local authorities process background checks.

Typical Turnaround Times

Your international criminal history check is typically finalised within 5–15 business days after your application and ID documents are verified.

Processing time depends on several factors:

- The country or region where records are verified
- Government-agency response times
- Public holidays or local verification processes
- Accuracy and completeness of your submitted information

Worker Checks automatically tracks progress and alerts you when your results are ready in your secure portal.

Average Processing by Country
